Mr Brew. Please make a file of letters papers affecting the quotas of towns under the last call ^{for drafted men} August August 16th 1862

Hon. Israel Washburn Jr.
Governor,
agreeable to the conversation that I had with you yesterday in regard to our surplus of men that have ^{gone} into other towns to fill their quotas to wit.

I believe those men have been rejected.

I think that there are some three or four men more that have enlisted that has not been mustered in yet for those towns above mentioned.
